

Flutes and Whistles of the Pueblo People Video

With Instructional Coordinator Marlon Magdalena

QUESTION AND ANSWERS (5-8)

What flutes are mentioned in the video?

Rim-blown flutes, bones flutes, Two-chambered Block Flutes

Where were the long rim-blown flutes found, and by who?

Brocken Flute Cave, Arizona, Earl Morris

Why are they called rim-blown flutes?

The player has to blow on the rim to make a sound

What are 2 techniques used to play rim-blown flutes?

Oblique/Side blowing technique and Interdental blowing technique

What is the first flute in the video made of?

Bamboo

Where did the second flute come from?

Grand Gulch, Utah

What kind of bones are the bone flutes made of?

Eagle and turkey

What part of the animal are the bones from?

Wing (ulna)

Why do I call the last flutes Two-chambered block flutes?

This flute has two chambers, the slow air chamber and the sound chamber

What is the scale on the Modern Two-chambered block flute?

Modern Pentatonic

What are some other types of flutes that you may have seen or heard that aren't in the video?
